STATE NEWS.

—The Woodruff cotton mill will increase its capital stock from $250,000 to $500,000.

—The oldest soldier in South Carolina is James Powers, of Richland County, a veteran of four wars.

—From April 1902 to April 1903 the sum of $526.04 was expended by the city of Abbeville on account of smallpox.

—Supervisor D. D. Padgett, of Edgefield county, 37 years old, dropped dead on the streets of Augusta, Ga., on Wednesday.

—In about sixty days the internal revenue department will commence the payment of the rebate tobacco claims in this State.

—Lightning killed a negro and a mule Wednesday while in the field ploughing on the farm of W. G. Rice, Jr., near Coronaca.

—The fast freight trains on the Southern Railway have begun to carry peaches from Aiken and Ridge Spring to the Northern markets.

—Vast deposits of tin are said to abound near King's mountain. A well known official of the U. S. geological survey makes the statement.

—The Graniteville cotton mill, one of the oldest and largest in the State and the South, has shut down on account of the high price of cotton.

—The Masons of Florence at an early day will erect a temple to cost $10,000. The lot has already been purchased and arrangements perfected.

—Pussy Davis, an aged negroess, was struck by lightning and instantly killed while sitting at the window of her shanty on St. Helena Island, near Beaufort.

—The report of the directors of the Abbeville furniture factory shows that the company made a profit of 20 per cent on its capital stock of $25,000 during last year.

—Miss Lola A. Turner, of Spartanburg county, is suing her father, Charles A. Turner, for alleged ill treatment and cruelly beating her. Damages of $10,000 are asked for.

—L. H. Hankinson, of Beaufort Island, had a cow bitten by a mad dog about a year ago. The dog went mad a few days ago and had to be killed. The same dog bit a little negro, but he is all right so far.

—Union, who some time ago voted to tax herself for the support of the proffered Carnegie library, has appointed committees to take charge of the matter and the library will be placed at an early date.

—The Citadel Cadets will hold their annual encampment at Rook Hill this year, from 15th June to 1st July. Col. Coward and Major White have visited that town and selected the grounds of the high school for the camp.

—Carey Styles, white, was tried in Greenville last week for killing Walter McCarroll, at Highland, Greenville county, on the 19th of August last, and convicted of manslaughter. His brother Emory was tried as accessory and acquitted.

—Bailey, in Aiken county, was almost completely wiped out by fire one day last week. The fire was caused by a burning lamp in a millinery store. Only a few isolated dwellings were left in the village, which had a population of 252 persons.

—After being out of the State six months H. L. Lloyd, of Darlington, has been arrested in Texas and will be brought back to this State to stand trial for the forgery of a promissory note to the amount of $162 on the People's bank of Darlington.

—The trustees of the Gibbes bequest bought at Charleston the site of the Old Grand opera house on Meeting street and will erect on it the art institute which was presented to Charleston by the late James Gibbes. Mr. Gibbes left in his will more than $100,000 to the city of Charleston.

—The contract has been let for furnishing cross-ties for the rebuilding of the railroad from Greenville to Marietta, known as the "Stamp Rabbit" road, which was abandoned years ago. The road will be built by a big lumber company that has bought thousands of acres of timber at the foot of the Blue Ridge mountains.

—G. K. Russell, of Walhalla, who went to Union to do some plumbing for the Barr Hardware Company, of Greenville, was instantly killed by the explosion of a drum in a soda fountain which was being recharged by Eugene Sasse, who was not hurt. Russell was watching the filling of the drum and when it exploded it tore a hole in his skull six or eight inches long.

—On April 8 Julius Matthews, formerly of Marion, led to Hymen's altar the girl of his choice. He carried his bride, Miss Lilly Staley, to Dillon, where life's journey began most auspiciously. Three weeks ago she was stricken with fever, which ended in her death last week. Just seven weeks from the day of their marriage, she lay in her bridal robes, her mortal remains were carried to and interred in the family burial ground near the town of Marion.

—A few nights ago groans just outside the house awoke the family of W. T. McFall, at Pilekens, and upon investigation the unconscious body of Craig Mauldin, a college student and nephew of Mr. McFall, who was spending the night with him, was found lying on the ground under a window. Being afflicted with convulsive tendencies, young Mauldin walked out a second story window while asleep on to a shed, and from there fell to the ground, a distance of 20 feet, sustaining serious injuries.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Eight thousand barbers are out on a strike in the city of Chicago.

—An earthquake in Asiatic Turkey destroyed a town and killed hundreds of people.

—Arrests have been made of postmasters in the Philippine Islands for robbing the government.

—A mob of men in Newcastle, Wyoming, lynched a rancher for murdering a man and his wife.

—Thousands of people in Kansas are being rendered homeless by floods. The situation at Topeka is desperate.

—Eight trainmen were killed on Wednesday in a collision of two freight trains on the Southern near Bryan, Ala.

—A tornado destroyed the house of W. D. Wilson near Hereford, Texas, on Thursday and his wife and baby were killed in it.

—President Samuel Spencer announces that the Southern railway will be double tracked from Washington to Atlanta.

—A large tobacco warehouse backed by Andrew Carnegie is to be started in Richmond and operated exclusively by negroes.

—The boll weevil has begun operations in Southern Texas. It can be counted upon to keep down the supply of cotton in the West.

—Mrs. Thos. Countess and her servant Margaret Morris were instantly killed by lightning at Moridianville, Ala., on Wednesday night.

—It is probable that the national political conventions will be held in St. Louis next year, as the delegates will be able to take in the exposition.

—The attorney general of Texas has taken steps to break up an alleged insurance trust and has entered suit against fifty-nine foreign fire insurance companies.

—Mrs. Adeline Patti will revisit America in November. She will sing sixty nights for $5,000 a night. Her notes will be too high for the average American ear.

—There were 35 heat prostrations in New York city on Wednesday, seven of them proving fatal, and there were three deaths from sunstroke the same day in Philadelphia.

—Terrible details of suffering and death have been reported as a result of a famine in Kwangsi, China. Owing to three successive failures of crops, people are dying by the hundreds.

—General John S. Mosby, the famous Confederate cavalry officer, who is at present at Montgomery, Ala., is enjoying excellent health, with apparently many years of activity before him.

—A train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was wrecked by the spreading of rails. The engineer and fireman were killed and the engine, mail coach and two passenger coaches were demolished.

—Andrew Bailey Young, of Belmont, N. H., who is 91 years old, still lives in the house in which he was born. He and his wife celebrated the sixty-sixth anniversary of their marriage last week.

—The estate of Captain William Dunovant, who was killed in Texas last year, has just been appraised at $691,126.50. There are 3,500 acres in cane, 3,000 in rice and the balance in cotton and corn, the whole acreage being 11,000.

—News comes of a horrible disaster in Armenia Thursday. An earthquake destroyed the town of Malazgirt, two thousand people, including seven hundred Armenians, and four hundred soldiers in garrison, being killed.

—Mrs. Effie L. Carson, who shot and killed Robert Rigby in Macon, Ga., some months ago for making slanderous remarks about her, has been acquitted. When the verdict of the jury was announced there was considerable applause.

—It is estimated that there are close on to 200,000 men idle in the different boroughs of Greater New York as a result of strikes ordered by different unions and the lookout decided upon by material and contractors in their fight against the unions.

—The Supreme court of the United States reversed the decision of the Supreme court of North Carolina, which stated that a suit in which the Southern Railway was concerned could not be moved from the State. The Federal court held that it was a foreign corporation and the case was removable to the Federal court.

—A lot of young fellows in an Ohio town had a good time with a tramp last week. They took him into a shed, gave him a good bath, shaved him and cut his hair. They then bought a new suit of clothes, white shirt and standing collar and dressed him out complete. But when they attempted to burn his hobo clothes he objected and fought for them with such desperation their suspicions were aroused and upon searching they found $1400 sewed up in the coat.

—A singular case has come to the notice of the physicians in Charlotte, N. C. J. T. Rushing, of that city, has a little son about two years old, who has always been very delicate. He appeared to suffer greatly with his throat for a few months, and then his lungs seemed to be affected; 'twas feared he had consumption. A few days ago his mother noticed something hard on his back just below the shoulder, and touching it found a needle, which she pulled out without any trouble. The needle was very rusty, and the child must have swallowed it when he was very young. The little child bids fair to be very healthy now and his case is exciting a good deal of interest.

Townville Notes.

Rev. John M. Lander, a missionary from Brazil, was unable to fill his appointment at this place on account of sickness in his family. His brother, Prof. Lander, of the Williamson Female College, delivered an eloquent lecture on Christian education.

There will be prayer meeting every Sunday night at the Baptist Church at this place. All are cordially invited to attend.

Lowndesville News.

Miss Elizabeth Wyche, of Elberton, who has been visiting Miss Ethel Spear, left Saturday to visit friends at Easley before returning home.

The Lowndesville High School closed last Thursday and on Friday a picnic was given in the grove near the Methodist Church. Hon. Isaac McCall and Congressman Wyatt Aiken made short speeches. For the past two years the school has been successfully taught by Prof. J. F. Harper and H. T. Brooks. Prof. Harper was re-elected for another term, but Prof. Brooks declined reelection, as it is his intention to enter a Medical College next term.

Miss Kathleen Norryce, of Anderson, is visiting Miss Nellie Bowman.

Mrs. Weston Harper is visiting Mrs. P. B. Allen at Starr.

Mr. Clarence Young, of Anderson, spent Friday with the family of Mr. J. T. Atimer.

Miss Macie Bell, daughter of Mr. Jas. Bell, who was carried to Augusta a week ago and operated on for appendicitis, is doing nicely, and will soon be able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Adra Pressley came down from Anderson yesterday to spend a few days with Mr. Caleb Clinkscale's family before going to Cincinnati, where Mr. Pressley has accepted a lucrative position.

Dr. T. O. Kirkpatrick has returned home after having taken a special course in medicine.

Miss Lil Huckabee has returned home to a visit to friends and relatives in Verdery, Greenwood and Ninety-Six.

Messrs. J. F. Barnes, Heard and Wyche, of Elberton, spent yesterday in town.

Dr. J. E. Watson and S. B. Sherard, of Iva, attended the picnic here Friday.

Harris Bridge Items.

We have been blessed with a little shower of rain, which was beneficial to all the farmers.

John Wilson, of Oconee, has been visiting his brother, J. J. Wilson.

Ira Cannon, of Abbeville, was the welcome visitor of friends and loved ones here. Come again, Mr. Cannon, we are always glad to see you.

The crops look very well in our section, considering everything.

Clem and Claud Harris attended the union meeting at Noles Creek last Sunday. Surely some attraction must be down there for these young men.

J. C. Holder and little daughter, Savannah, visited her grandfather, S. A. Hutchison, at Elberton, Ga.
